

A word cloud of global issues. The words are arranged in a circular pattern, with some words appearing multiple times. The words include: conflicts, developing, world, education, economic, health, yemen, peace, football, children, worry, corruption, countries, and recession. The words are in various shades of blue and green, with some words being larger and more prominent than others. The background is a light, textured grey.